Greetings in the name of Christ!

Here are some recent happenings at the schools and village in Jamaica.

Crusade

March 29 to April 3 the New Life Church of the Deaf and Dr. Bruce Kelly held a Deaf Crusade on the island. The theme was "Be Bold for Christ." Evening services were held at the Mandeville Baptist Church and were well attended. Saturday saw Bible study classes for men and women and on Sunday there was a service under the tent at the Deaf

Village. There were more than 300 in attendance and the Lord was Glorified! The Deaf church is also planting a church in Sav-La-Mar on the west side of the island.

Harvest Deaf Bible College Graduation

May was also a memorable month in Georgia with the graduation at the Harvest Deaf Bible College. CCCD had three graduates this year. Sheldon Burkett and his wife Rachel along with Narda Anderson. Narda received the Most Outstanding Student Award from Silent Word Ministries presented by Dr. Ted Camp. Sheldon and Rachel both were awarded Students of the Year. Our own Rev. Damian Campbell gave the commencement address with Donville Jones giving the charge to the graduates.

Go Dr. Buzz!

Every year Dr. Buzz Beauchamp returns to Jamaica to help our students with their dental needs. Thank you Dr. Buzz! We love you!

Please pray for the Deaf in Jamaica and the Caribbean that they may come to know the Lord. Pray for those that have accepted Him to remain strong and to help their fellow Deaf.
